GOD SLIPPED IN
"DID NOT OUR HEARTS BURN WITHIN US?"

About the Retreat:

Often, like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we journey through life not fully appreciating how God is with us. This retreat is a reflection of the varieties of religious experience, of the many ways that God can and does come in to our lives in good times and bad.

A range of complementary therapies are also available during the retreat (at an additional cost).

About the Retreat-giver:

Fr. Derek Lavery is a religious priest belonging to the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. The most famous member of the Congregation is Saint Damien of Molokai, the leper priest. Fr. Derek, who was ordained in 1991, is a well-known Retreat Director who has been full time involved in leading days, weekends and preached and directed retreats throughout the UK, Ireland and further afield. He has experience of parish ministry and working in the third world (Mozambique, Africa).

Duration:

The retreat will begin with registration from 5:00 pm on Monday evening. Evening meal will be served at 6:30 pm. The introductory session will then begin at 8:00 pm. The retreat will end after breakfast on Monday morning.

Cost:

The cost of the retreat is £495 sterling per person which includes all meals and accommodation as well as retreat-giver's fees.
