

Listening for the Heartbeat of God: The Pilgrim Life

Sunday, 10th June 2018

10:00 am - 4:30 pm

with Sr. Pam Thimmes, osc

Inspired by the title of John Philip Newell's book, Listening for the Heartbeat of God and by the refrain from Dan Schutte's Pilgrim Companions, "Drawn by a dream, lured by a love, pilgrim companions . . . sustained by the love of the Lord", in this day of reflection, Sr Pam addresses relationship as the foundation of personal prayer and the spiritual glue that continues to renew and energise us as pilgrim companions in the community of the living God.

*The day begins with registration at 9:30 am and ends at 4:30 pm approx.
The cost of the day is £40 per person and includes refreshments and lunch.*

About the Facilitator: Dr Thimmes, Professor Emerita of Religious Studies at the University of Dayton, is a Poor Clare sister living an eremitical life at the Poor Clare Monastery of the Light of Christ in Faughart, Co Louth. She teaches elements in each of the Drumalis certificate programmes as well as the Diploma, and in the Permanent Diaconate programmes for several dioceses. She is also an experienced and popular spiritual director and retreat leader, as well as a working photographer.
