MENDING THE GAPS - GUIDED RETREAT

“Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up their foundations; you will be called repairer of broken places, restorer of roads and dwellings.”

These words from the Prophet Isaiah, Chapter 58:12 are a haunting challenge today for us and our world. Our God longs for the repairing of gaps and breaches! Wherever we find ourselves, there seems to be a breach in almost every wall. They can be as small and near as within ourselves, people in our own family, town or community.

We long to be great-souled people who can hold the chaos together within ourselves - and be passionate agents of rebuilding and restoration. The reflections for each day of this retreat will awaken us to the human flourishing required for mending the gaps and maintaining relationships with the Divine, other people, and our Earth.

Each day will include a daily morning presentation, ample time during the day for personal reflection, immersion in the outer and inner landscapes of Drumalis, walking/hiking, creative experiences, spiritual guidance, and a prayer ritual/body praise/sharing session each evening.

About the Retreat-giver:

Sr Joann Heinritz is a Sister of St Joseph of Carondelet. Presently she is involved in the Jesuit School of Theology Renewal program in Berkeley, California, as spiritual director, retreat director and instructor.

Having completed a Master’s degree in Spirituality, and been certified as a Massage Practitioner at the Care Through Touch Institute in Berkeley, she incorporates in her retreats and workshops a passion for embodied spirituality and holistic well-being.

Sr. Joann volunteers as a massage therapist at The Friendly Place, a women’s shelter in Oakland, California

Duration:

The retreat will begin with registration from 5:00 pm on Sunday and evening meal will be served at 6:00 pm. There will be an introductory session on the first evening.

The retreat will end after breakfast on Saturday morning.

Cost:

The cost of the retreat is £600 sterling per person which includes all meals and accommodation as well as facilitator’s fees.
