WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID:

'I thoroughly enjoyed the quality of the presentations and found them really thought provoking.'

'I loved the people I met and the discussions we had both formally and informally over coffee and lunch breaks.'

'Being able to do the course by Zoom was great. I don't live in Ireland so it made it possible for me to join in.'

'I genuinely feel my eyes have been opened to new insights and learning.'

What is the purpose of the course?

The Certificate in Christian Thought aims to offer a space where adults can explore, reflect upon, discuss and study faith and how it relates to life in today's world, both at a personal and community level.

Is this course for me?

This course is offered to women and men from all walks of life. It sees participants' lived experience as complementary to the more formal input of the sessions and values the sharing of that experience as one of the great gifts participants can offer to each other. It presents Christian spirituality and theology in an accessible, down-to-earth way in an accepting and relaxed atmosphere. It is possible to do the course for validation by St Mary's University College OR for personal development only.
