

The Passion Story: “A Story of Love and Hope” A Day of Prayer and Reflection with Fr Aidan Troy CP

at Drumalis, Larne
Saturday, 25 October 2025 from 9:30 am - 4:00 pm

“Life is often a desert. It is difficult to walk, but if we trust in God, it can become beautiful and wide as a highway. Never lose hope; continue to believe, always, in spite of everything. Hope opens new horizons, making us capable of dreaming what is not even imaginable.” - Pope Francis, On Hope

Fr Aidan Troy CP leads us as we search for hope in the middle of so much uncertainty, conflict and loss in the world today. A native of Bray, Co. Wicklow, Fr Troy was ordained in 1971 and is a member of the Congregation of the Passion (the Passionists). He has ministered in places as divergent as Dublin, Crossgar, Paris, Rome and Holy Cross, Ardoyne. In all these places his focus has been on proclaiming the story of the Passion of Jesus as a source of hope and a message of unconditional love.

This day of reflection will begin with registration and tea/coffee on arrival from 9:30 am followed by the opening session at 10 am and will end at 4 pm.
