WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID:

'What I have loved most about Pathways was the community feeling which developed, a feeling of travelling together and listening to each other.'

'It was reassuring to be with people who ask the same questions and have similar doubts to my own.'

'The range of topics was fantastic and each of the presenters was really interesting.'

'The two years flew in. I'm sad to be coming to the end and hungry for more.'

PATHWAYS 1

Adult Faith Development Course

Now in our 19th year

Part-Time Course commencing Oct 2023

St Mary's
University College
Belfast
A College of Queen's University

Have you ever thought about exploring your faith...or wished that you could broaden your understanding of your faith?

Would you like to explore, discuss and reflect upon issues and questions of faith, the Church, and how to link faith to life?

Yes – then Pathways may be for you!

Pathways is open to women and men from all walks of life, and the diverse life experience of the group enhances the input from the presenters.

No academic qualifications necessary.

No written work involved.

The course runs one Saturday per month (10am—4pm) from October to June.

We are now in our 19th year and over 500 people have completed the Pathways course so far.
